Monsignor Mederic J. Roberts
Honored on Occasion of 40th Year in the Priesthood

Millbury Public Library

"I'm getting younger every year because I'm coming closer to the Lord." - Msgr. Roberts

MILLBURY - Monsignor Mederic J. Roberts, pastor of Our Lady of the Assumption Parish, was honored on Sunday by family, friends, and parishioners on the occasion of his 40th anniversary in the priesthood.

Delivering the Homily at the Eucharistic Celebration, the Rev. Thomas Needham, pastor of St. Joan of Arc Parish in Worcester, called Msgr. Roberts a "faithful disciple of Jesus."

Recalling the Monsignor's early years in the priesthood, Fr. Needham told of the young priest who was forced by illness to remain on the "sidelines" for two and one half years. "In those years of illness," Fr. Needham said, "he came closer to God in prayer."

Fr. Needham, carrying out his theme of discipleship, also spoke of the many years of dedication and service Msgr. Robert's gave to the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine program for the Diocese of Worcester. "He was the inspiration for our diocese to become one of the best in United States," he said.

Also addressing the congregation was Auxiliary Bishop George Rueger who said of the Monsignor, "To each task over 40 years, he has exhibited the energy and enthusiasm of a good man of God." Bishop Rueger also reminded Msgr. Roberts, "In 10 years you will be celebrating your 50th anniversary. Stay right where you are," he said, "and continue God's work. We need you here. You have been an inspiration for all of us."

Monsignor Roberts, who has served Assumption Parish for twenty years, is well-known for interjecting a bit of humor in his homilies. When at last he spoke to the gathering, he did not let the moment pass. "The priesthood doesn't kill you," he said, "you just fade away."

Obviously humbled by the praise conferred on him, the Monsignor said simply, "I thank God for the gift of my priesthood so that I can continue to serve you."

Following the celebration, Msgr. Roberts greeted guests at a reception held in the Parish hall.

Thank You...

On September 3, the tenants at Linden Apartments had a cook out. Each tenant made and brought some food, including hot dogs, hamburgers, salads, pudding, and homemade bread baked by Tilly Boudreau. Also a cake for someone's birthday.

Marjorie Landry and Doris Cournoyer decided to get us all together. They both also served and cleaned the place up. There are so many new people here in the last year.

Thank you girls, we all had a nice time.

Thanks,
Ann Rano

Thank You...

The Millbury Lioness Club wishes to thank all of those who supported our efforts this summer during Millbury's Birthday Celebration.

Once again, thank you for your generosity.

Millbury Selectmen's Meeting Digest

Board Receives Update on Capping Landfill

By Edward J. Cooney

MILLBURY - The September 13 Selectmen's Meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m. In addition to Chairman Jude Cristo, members present were Roland Lachance, John Donnelly, and Donald Gauthier.

Minutes for the August 23 and 30 meetings were accepted on a 4-0 vote.

Administrative Assistant Earl Chase then presented his weekly report to the board.

Acting Chief

The board voted unanimously to reaffirm its policy of naming an acting chief in the absence of the chief.

Veterans' Agent

Chase submitted the name of Fred Lucas to fill the position of Veterans' Agent on a temporary basis at an hourly rate of $10.40. Lucas had previously served in that position. The board approved unanimously.

Hank Kniskern was present to present his resume for the position of Veterans' Agent. Kniskern told the board that he has been a member of the VFW as well as commander at the local and district levels and feels he has a good understanding of the veterans' needs.

In the area of administrative experience, Kniskern said that he had managed a store and the bar at the VFW in town, and was responsible for money management, hiring and firing of personnel, scheduling of employees' work hours, as well as scheduling for the use of the hall by outside parties.

Cristo asked Kniskern if he would involve himself in other forms of human services if required. Kniskern replied that he had no problems with that if requested.

The position pays $19,000 per year for a 35 hour work week.

Also interviewed for the position was John St. Denis.

In responding to the same questions asked of Kniskern, St. Denis said that he was looking for a career change after having worked 30 years for the U.S. Postal Service. St. Denis emphasized the administrative experience he had as Postmaster in Grafton, managing and supervising the operations of that office.

St. Denis said that he was a disabled veteran and would act as an ombudsman for veterans to service their needs through the various agencies that provide services to veterans.

St. Denis has an associate's degree in industrial engineering and is working towards a degree in economics at Worcester State College. According to St. Denis, he sees no problem with the Veterans' Agent Position expanding its services to other human services if needed.

Cristo closed the interview by informing St. Denis that next week three more candidates will be interviewed and a decision would be made shortly thereafter.

"No Parking" Signs

Chase reported that Safety Officer Fred Vulter has recommended that a "No Parking Here to Corner" sign be posted on Park Hill Ave. to Johnson Ave.

Chase noted that no change in parking regulations would be required. The board approved on a 4-0 vote.

Lewcott Chemical

Chase informed the board that Lewcott Chemical will be approaching the Police Chief in the near future for permits to make Sunday production runs. According to Chase, the runs will be similar to past runs. "Since the incinerators have been installed and working, we have had no complaints of odors," Chase said.

Transfer Station and Landfill

Members of the Solid Waste Study Committee and the Board of Health met with the board to discuss the financial aspects for funding the construction of a transfer station on the present landfill site, which will be capped sometime in the near future provided articles for the funding are approved at a special town meeting.

Cristo explained that Town Treasurer Dave Cofske was not available to discuss the financing and suggested that the assessors be asked to come in and present a report on growth studies. Chase reported back that the assessors were not immediately available and would have their report ready for next week's meeting.

Richard Dwinell, Chairman of the Solid Waste Study Committee, presented an article his committee had prepared for inclusion in the warrant. Dwinell said it was a "Stock" Article within which a definite sum of money would need to be specified. He noted that the low bidder submitted a bid of $943,000. SEA, the committee's consultant, also recommends adding 10% to that figure for a contingency fund of $93,000.

According to Dwinell, DEQE insists on "engineering scrutiny" which would add $40-$50,000 over and above the bid price.

Board of Health Chairman Frank Piscitelli spoke next and presented an article for capping of the landfill on Riverlin Street.

Piscitelli noted that there has been an updating on capping plans from Cullinan Engineering and a final application has been sent to DEQE. "The good news is that we only have to cap 13 acres rather than 17 acres," Piscitelli said. He also noted that they would be asking for 1.4 million but probably would not use it all. According to Piscitelli, the original cost estimate for 17 acres was 1.6 million.

Cristo suggested that the Board of Health consider going out to bid first before specifying monies for an article on the warrant. He noted that the town has run into problems with projects that were estimated, with bids coming in way over estimates.

Piscitelli replied that estimates were pretty accurate per acre.

Lachance asked what contributions the state would make towards capping the landfill since they are mandating the capping.

Piscitelli replied, "Nothing. We have applied for grants. There is no Notice of Condition as yet," he said.

Lachance then asked, "Shouldn't we wait for those conditions?"

Piscitelli replied that grants could be received totalling $500,000. He also said that the capping was not mandated by the state.

Lachance asked, "They why are we doing it?"

Piscitelli replied, "It's a requirement of DEQE. We have to comply with that requirement. Once we receive that notice of compliance, if we don't comply we could be fined $50,000. The grant is expected in the fall."

Lachance responded, "The state should 'cough up' the money. The state can't mandate under (Prop.) 2 1/2."

Lachance asked Dwinell if he was aware of other funding that might be available.

Dwinell replied that $160,000,000 was bonded by the state with $40,000,000 overall available to communities. Dwinell also noted that every community is applying and that it was obvious that not enough money would be available.

It was suggested that Earl Chase follow up with Senator Houston and Rep. Paul Kollios to find out what criteria is used for first preference and how monies would be allocated.

Lachance added, "The taxpayers are taking it on the chin. They shouldn't have to take it any more."

Cristo suggested to both committees that they meet again next week to set a date for a special town meeting and to look at the new assessment figures and budget information.

Water Company Lines

At 7:45, the board met with David White of R.H. White Construction Co. to review plans for extending Mass. American Water Company lines from Millbury to the Wilkinsonville Water District.

Board members expressed concerns surrounding the location of trenches and the replacement of a broken down guardrail along a section of Rte. 122A leading to Sutton.

White assured members that most of the trenching would be off the pavement with two street crossings 650' apart. According to White, the road surface is concrete and would be replaced with concrete. White said that he has already met with Highway Surveyor Joe Chase and all utility representatives.

A motion to grant approval did not get a second as Selectmen Lachance and Gauthier were concerned with not having a written recommendation from Joe Chase.

Gauthier then said that he was concerned that Mass. American Water Works was extending water service to Sutton but wasn't extending service to parts of Millbury.

Donnelly noted that Mass. American Water was agreeable to selling out and that the Water Study Committee was considering beginning negotiations.

Responding to the guardrail issue, White stated that he has agreed to replace the guardrail with material to be supplied by Joe Chase. "I'll do whatever Joe wants," said White.

The motion was seconded, and approval granted on the condition that Joe Chase approves the plans.

Pole Location

At 8:00 p.m., a pole location on Davis Road was granted with two poles to be located on the property of Dan and Linda Donovan. Lachance, an abutter, stepped down for the vote. He was opposed to the original plan but indicated that he was satisfied with the resolution and thanked the Donovans for their consideration. The board approved on a 4-0 vote.

Restoration Project

Two permits are pending from the State Division of Water Pollution Control, Division of Wetlands and Waterways, for the Dorothy Pond Restoration Project. According to Chase, "I am not sure about work being done this fall."

Ramshorn

At Donnelly's suggestion, the board approved dropping the water level at Ramshorn. Donnelly noted that work on the dry hydrant could begin around October 1st when the water level is lower.

Millbury Ave. Reconstruction

Work on Millbury Ave. reconstruction drainage will begin soon as voted by the board, 4-0. Granger Lynch requested the go ahead so work can start before winter.

Chase noted that technically the contract for the whole project could not be awarded until work order changes are signed and approved.

"Heritage Hall of Honor" Inductees

UXBRIDGE - Twelve individuals, two of whom are still living today, have been elected as the second year inductees of Blackstone Valley Heritage Homecoming's "Heritage Hall of Honor," according to Heritage Homecoming's Board Chairman, Rep. Richard T. Moore of Uxbridge.

The nominees were submitted by individuals, local historical commissions, councils on aging, and Blackstone Valley Heritage Homecoming Committee members.

Two retired staffers of the Worcester Telegram and Gazette tied in the balloting and will share the honor of being the living Valley resident selected from among all eleven towns to be named to this year's Heritage Hall of Honor. Robert C. Achorn of Sutton, retired President and Publisher of the Telegram and Gazette and George G. Newton of Upton, retired veteran and correspondent for the paper were chosen.

Robert C. Achorn

During his 41 years with the Worcester Telegram and Evening Gazette, Achorn served as reporter, editorial writer, associate publisher, publisher and president and was on the Board of Directors of the Associated Press.

Born in Westboro in 1922, Achorn graduated from Westboro High School in 1939 and from Brown University in 1943. Following college, he entered the Navy and spent 20 months in the Pacific Theater in World War II, rising from seaman apprentice to lieutenant and commanding officer of a submarine chaser. Several months after his discharge from the Navy in 1946, Achorn applied for work at the Worcester Telegram. He was immediately dispatched to be a reporter in the Gardner office. Six months later, he joined the reporting staff in Worcester.

As the Telegram's City Hall reporter from 1947 to 1953, Achorn set the standard for coverage of city politics. He filed up to a dozen stories a day and wrote six columns a week.

Achorn became an editorial writer in 1953, and won several awards for his editorial writing. In 1960 he was named Editor of the editorial pages. In 1964 he became managing editor of The Evening Gazette, associate editor of both papers in 1967, and editor in 1970. In 1973, he was named vice president and editor. He became associate publisher and executive vice president in 1981, publisher in 1982, and president of the company in 1986.

George G. Newton

George G. Newton, now 96 years old and a resident of the Beaumont Nursing Home in Westboro, served with distinction as Town Clerk of Upton for 36 years (1937-1971). He was a newspaperman for the Worcester Telegram and Gazette and Upton's correspondent for the Milford News for more than seventy years. Newton served as a special secretary for the late Bill Summers, an American League Umpire for over twenty-seven years who was also selected to the Hall of Honor this year as a deceased honoree.

In addition to their selection to the Hall of Honor, Achorn and Newton will serve as Honorary Grand Marshal of the 1988 All-America Kick-Off Parade in Uxbridge on September 28. The event officially launches the Third Annual Heritage Homecoming.

On Friday, September 30, Achorn and Newton will be inducted into the Hall of Honor during an awards ceremony held in conjunction with the annual Heritage Homecoming Dinner Dance at Myriad Ballroom, Mendon. They will share the honor of induction with ten deceased Valley residents, including Laurence F. Stockwell of Millbury and Flora Holbrook Dudley of Sutton.

Laurence F. Stockwell

Stockwell was a self-employed electrical contractor, owner and operator of the former Laurence F. Stockwell and Son Company for 18 years, retiring in 1966. He was previously a meter tester for Worcester Electric Light Company, later New England Power Company in Worcester, and was formerly the timekeeper of the clocks.

Stockwell was born in West Millbury, son of Robert J. and Minni L. (Fletcher) Stockwell and lived there most of his life. He was a graduate of Millbury High School and attended Northeastern University.

He served on a number of Millbury boards and committees, including the Career Education Committee of the Millbury School Department, the board of directors of the Millbury Council on Aging, the Millbury Revaluation Study Commission, and the Municipal Landfill Committee.

Stockwell was secretary of the first Millbury Taxpayers' Association and a member of the second. He also worked on the School Committee budget. He was vice president and former president of the West Millbury Cemetery Commission.

Stockwell was a member of First Congregational Church for more than 50 years, and served on various church boards. He also helped with church maintenance, and installed its Christmas lighting and decorations for many years. In 1981, Stockwell received a plaque from the church for his more than 50 years of service.

Flora Holbrook Dudley

Flora Holbrook Dudley, daughter of Wilder S. and Jane M. Holbrook, was born on April 18, 1881, in the Holbrook house on the corner of Boston Road and Singletary Avenue.

She began her education in the General Rufus Putnam School, now the Sutton Historical Society Museum, and graduated from Wellesley College in 1903. After teaching languages and music for five years in the Westerly Rhode Island High School, she married John C. Dudley. They lived in Montreal, Canada, before coming back to Sutton to live in the old Dudley Farm on Dudley Lane in 1912. During that time, a daughter was born, Alice Holbrook Dudley, who died in infancy. Her only son, Staff Sergeant John Holbrook Dudley, a Tailgunner on a B17 bomber, was shot down on May 10, 1943, over Sicily during World War II. Her husband, John L. Dudley, died December 23, 1951 after serving in Town offices for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dudley donated seventy acres adjacent to Purgatory Chasm Preservation for a recreational area in memory of their son. Also, a square at the junction of Central Turnpike and Route 146 is dedicated to him.

Beginning in the early 1950's, Flora Dudley became active in civic affairs. Her husband was Chairman of the Town History Committee, whose purpose was to prepare an update Volume II Sutton History 1876-1950 for publication in commemoration of the Nineteen Fifty-Four 250th anniversary. Flora Dudley was appointed to this committee in February, 1952. She participated in a 1954 Anniversary Program in many of its components, including modeling period costumes at the Anniversary Ball and delivering a historical resume at the banquet.

Shortly thereafter, Mrs. Dudley was designated official Town Historian. In 1966, a reprint of Volume I 1704-1876 was personally funded by her and presented to the Town of Sutton. In December 1969, when the Sutton Historical Society was founded, she was a charter member and elected to the Board of Directors. In early 1970, the Sherman Blacksmith Shop on Singletary Avenue became available to the Historical Society. Being only a fledgling group, the treasury was short-funded and Mrs. Dudley shared donations with a few others to raise the money to purchase the Blacksmith Shop by the Society.

Mrs. Dudley had many interests and talents. She was adept at directing plays and coached the Annual Grange Plays using all local talent as well as organizing the yearly Memorial Day Town Hall Evening Service. For over 40 years, she gave music lessons to many children in Sutton. In her teaching, she emphasized piano skills and the theory of music. During this period, she played the organ at St. John's Episcopal Church in Wilkinsonville and directed its choir.

Flora Dudley acquired a notable collection of period costumes of yesteryear and modeled them at such diverse locations as Williamstown and Rhode Island. Her costume items included paisley shawls, appropriate jewelry, and other period accessories which, along with her commentaries, made these presentations very interesting.

Flora Dudley died at the age of 101. During a century of phenomenal technological and social evolutions, she served the community with her skills and dedication.

Educational Program on AIDS

SUTTON - The First Congregational Church of Sutton will conduct an educational program entitled, "AIDS: Give Them the Facts" on Tuesday, September 27, at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Gina Colorio, the Minister of Education and Outreach at Pakachoag Church of Auburn, will be conducting the program. Refreshments will be served.

Contact the church office at 865-6914 to sign up for this free informational seminar.

Harvest Supper

SUTTON - The First Congregational Church of Sutton will hold their October Harvest Supper on Saturday, October 1, from 5-7 p.m.

This family-style supper is served continuously and will include Corned Beef, Cabbage, Potatoes, Turnips, Carrots, Onions, Beets, and the usual Homemade Bread. This will topped off with Apple Crisp for dessert.

Meal prices are $5 for adults, $1.50 for pre-teens, and children 5 and under are admitted free of charge.

"Special Children, Special Visions"

WORCESTER - "Special Children, Special Visions," will be a display of drawings, paintings and collages by children who have physical, mental or emotional disabilities. The exhibit begins October 4, at the University of Massachusetts Medical Center Gallery, 55 Lake Ave., Worcester. The artists are children and adolescents afflicted with debilitating diseases and injuries, abuse and exploitation, learning disabilities, and mental retardation. All are enrolled in the member schools of the Massachusetts Foundation for Children.

The UMass Medical Center and the Foundation are hosting an Opening Reception for this exhibit on Tuesday, October 4, from 4-7 p.m. The display showcases the talent and skills of these impaired children. The exhibit and reception are free and open to the public.

By Rosemary Waltos

Wall Street moves to Millbury! If you are a member of Millbury's small business community, mark your calendars for September 27 through the 30th to attend the "Millbury Business Week" at the Millbury Public Library. From 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m., the library will welcome the small business community to view its updated and expanded business resources collection. While browsing though this select collection, enjoy a continental breakfast and take time to talk to our collection development librarian about your information needs.

If you haven't been to the library in some time, you'll be surprised at the growing business materials available in both our reference and circulating collections. You can leisurely browse through these collections and take advantage of our comfortable study areas and easy chairs.

For both the browser and more serious business information seeker, we have put together a list of several essential reference sources located in our reference collection. The call number for each book is located in brackets after the title. If you want to peruse our general collection, just look for the corresponding numbers in our nonfiction area.

THOMAS REGISTER OF AMERICAN MANUFACTURERS and THOMAS REGISTER CATALOG FILE (658 REG) - In this 21 volume set, you'll find a listing of over 50,000 products and services and who provides them. You'll also find company profiles for over 135,000 companies in the United States.

WESTERN NEW ENGLAND AND EASTERN NEW ENGLAND INDUSTRIAL BUYING GUIDES (658 REG) - These two volumes are also published by Thomas Register. They focus in on products and services available in the New England area.

WORCESTER AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE 1988 BUYERS' GUIDE AND MEMBERSHIP ROSTER (658 WOR) - Here's a listing of all the businesses which belong to the Worcester, Auburn, Blackstone Valley and Westborough/ Northborough Chambers of Commerce. Information includes names, addresses, description of business and number of employees.

MILLION DOLLAR DIRECTORY (338.7 MIL) and STANDARD AND POORS REGISTER OF CORPORATIONS, DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVES (338.7 STA) - Both of these sources cover America's leading public and private companies. Standard and Poors also covers Canadian firms. Both books are leading resources in the area of marketing.

THE CAREER GUIDE (331.7) - Here's something for someone forging a career in business. This is a Dun & Bradstreet publication that is a comprehensive guide to employment opportunities for more than 5,000 U.S. companies. Information includes a company description, career opportunities, training and career development, benefits, and the names of the personnel directors.

DIRECTORY OF NEW ENGLAND MANUFACTURERS (658 DIR) - This directory covers the six state new England region, giving detailed information on New England manufacturing companies including addresses, phone numbers, executives' names, product descriptions and SIC numbers. This directory is broken down into three main sections: alphabetical, geographical, and by product. For a Massachusetts focus only, you'll want to consult MASSACHUSETTS DIRECTORY OF MANUFACTURERS (658 MAS), too.

MASSACHUSETTS SERVICE DIRECTORY (338.025 HAL) - You can look here for detailed information on Massachusetts service companies. Information includes company names, addresses, phone numbers, top executives, service/product descriptions, and SIC numbers.

POLK'S WORCESTER SUBURBAN DIRECTORY (338.4) and COLES DIRECTORY FOR WORCESTER AND VICINITY DIRECTORY - Both of these books are up-to-date street and numerical telephone directories. The COLES DIRECTORY alone includes census tract and zip code marketing information along with a new streets directory.

MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL LAWS ANNOTATED - This is a 70 volume set that covers all Massachusetts laws. Volume 5A, chapters 43-49A cover cities, towns and districts. In the REF 340 section, you'll also find a number of legal research guides including GUIDE TO FORMING A CORPORATION and LEGAL GUIDE FOR CORPORATE OFFICERS.

INDUSTRIAL OUTLOOK (338 Uni) - Put out by the Department of Commerce, this is a survey of the futures of over 350 industries. The bulk of this book covers industry reviews and forecasts for such industries as construction, general and special industrial machinery, textiles, insurance, savings institutions, and distribution services, to name just a few.

WALL STREET JOURNAL - This daily weekday newspaper is an institution and a "must read" for anyone in the business world. You'll find the latest edition each day in the Library's newspaper section.

BUSINESS WEEK - A weekly magazine that covers all aspects of business in a lively and informative style.

BUSINESS WORCESTER - A weekly newspaper that focuses on business news in the Central Massachusetts area.

MASSACHUSETTS PHONE BOOKS - A collection of over 45 local phone books covering all four corners of the state. You'll also find a number of special interest and 800 number telephone guides in this collection.

SPECIALIZED SUBJECT SEARCHING SERVICES - Access to business information is available using local sources and/or on-line database searching. On-line database services are available through the library.

Call the Millbury Public Library, 865-1181, first for the answers to your business information needs.

Library Hours: Tuesday through Thursday, 10-8; Friday, 10-6; Saturday, 10-1.

Who's Watching Your House?

MILLBURY - An increase in the incidence of house breaks in the area has prompted Police Chief Ronald Stokowski to ask for the cooperation of residents in reporting any suspicious activity taking place in their neighborhood.

"Our men are out patrolling the neighborhoods," Stokowski said, "but we can't be everywhere at once. Police have always relied on the assistance of the public at large to keep them informed of any potential criminal activity."

Stokowski also said that one major problem for the department is the reluctance of neighbors to become involved. "When we investigate a crime and talk with neighbors, many people will tell us they thought they saw some strange activity taking place but they didn't want to intrude on the privacy of their neighbors." Privacy aside, many burglaries could be interrupted by a quick phone call to the police department when suspicious activity is observed or suspected. "All they have to do," Stokowski said, "is call and tell us they see something unusual going on in the area. The caller doesn't even have to leave a name. We'll immediately dispatch a car to that neighborhood. We'd rather make 20 trips to follow up on suspicious activity than miss an opportunity to prevent a burglary. We randomly patrol neighborhoods where suspect activity has been observed but frequently perpetrators know how to prevent being seen, and there is always the possibility that a cruiser might actually pass a home while a burglary is in progress."

Burglaries now account for the largest percentage of crime in the town of Millbury. Recent figures released by the state Executive Office of Public Safety show Millbury's 1987 crime rate up 20.8% over 1986 figures, with burglaries (62) accounting for approximately 49% of the 128 crimes reported, larceny and thefts (43), 33%; and motor vehicle theft (13), aggravated assault (9), and robbery (1) making up the remaining 18%. The figures were compiled from reports submitted voluntarily by local and state law enforcement agencies.

Stokowski said that while the figures are accurate, they may be misleading. "We're not a crime riddled community," he emphasized. "Because we have so few incidents of crime in proportion to larger towns or cities, even a minor increase appears as a larger percentage. Take our figures for motor vehicle theft. Last year's figures showed 13. If we have 16 this year, that would represent a 21% increase. If Worcester had three more this year, it would represent a .002% increase." Stokowski added, "I'm not saying we don't have any crime in Millbury, I'm saying that the numbers are not a cause for alarm."

Stokowski and Sgt. Edward Perry listed several ways in which residents can assist the department in reducing the incidence of house breaks.

Notify the police if:

1. a stranger stops at your house and asks for directions or makes some other explanation for being at your door that seems suspicious.

2. you observe a stranger in your neighborhood, either on foot or in a motor vehicle.

3. you see an unfamiliar vehicle cruising back and forth in your area.

3. you see an unfamiliar vehicle driving back and forth in front of your neighbor's home when you know they are at work or on vacation.

Stokowski and Perry also offered tips to keep your home protected from burglaries:

1. If you have an alarm, use it every time you go out.

2. Make your home looked lived-in at all times. For example, keep lights on in the evening and a TV or radio playing.

3. If possible, have a car in the driveway when you are away.

4. Notify police if you are going on vacation.

5. Lock your doors at night and whenever you are away.

Stokowski cautioned that under no circumstances should anyone try to apprehend a suspected burglar. They should instead immediately call the police. Following that, it is recommended that a description of the car (color, make, model, year, dents, rust spots, stickers, etc.) and the suspected burglar (height, sex, distinguishing characteristics) be written down. People should also try to note the direction in which the person or vehicle is traveling.

A combined effort between residents and the police department can go a long way in providing a safe community.

A Bit of History....

by Grace Laflash

Because it is our town's 175th birthday, I would like to share a bit of history with you.

- Budding trees, birds singing, warmer days are all welcome signs during the month of May. However, in 1834, on the fourteenth, the inhabitants of Millbury were quite surprised when snow fell and didn't melt until the following day.

- In 1853, Thomas Ashworth returned from California with a nugget of almost pure gold that weighed seventy-three and one-half ounces. It was valued at $1300.

- At the March 11 town meeting in 1867, it was voted that the liquor agency be abolished and that the liquor on hand be turned into the street. Needless to say, this was not fully executed.

New Members Needed

MILLBURY - The Millbury Arts Council is currently seeking new members. The Council is responsible for the distribution of funds allocated by the State Art Lottery Fund for art-related programs. Students of the Millbury schools, members of the Millbury Women's Club, the Millbury Public Library, The Council on Aging, and the general public have all benefited from events and/or programs funded by the Arts Council.

Meetings are held on the second Thursday of the month in the Sewerage Commission Office at the Town Hall. The next regularly scheduled meeting will be October 13, at 7:30 p.m. Stop by and see what the Council is all about.

Arts Council Now Accepting Applications

MILLBURY - The Millbury Arts Council is accepting applications for funding art-related programs. Applications are available at the Millbury Public Library and the Town Hall. All applications should be typed and received by the Arts Council NO LATER THAN October 12, 1988. You can bring in or mail applications to the Millbury Arts Council, c/o Millbury Town Hall, 127 Elm Street, Millbury, MA 01527.

Residents Concerned Over Proposed DMH Facility

By Terry Barnicle

MILLBURY - The September 13 meeting of the Board of Selectmen convened with Chairman Mike Chizy and members Mary K. Connor, Rick Labonte, and Wally Johnson present. Also present was Town Administrator Dexter Blois. The following issues were addressed:

Sutton Post Office

Post Office representative Ed Opacki and volunteer Ray Perron, a retired post office executive, appeared before the board regarding a zip code proposal for the Town.

Sutton residents currently receive mail through the Wilkinsonville, Manchaug, Douglas, East Douglas, Whitinsville, and Millbury Post Offices.

Under the proposal, Sutton will have one post office and postmaster with a zip code of 01590 for all residents, with the exception of Manchaug post office boxes which will retain the 01526 zip; a clerk will remain in Manchaug.

DMH Facility

A public hearing was held on a proposal from the Department of Mental Health to locate a facility on West Sutton Road to house four emotionally troubled youths between the ages of 14-18.

D.M.H. representatives included Jerry Kokernak, Area Director of DMH and Mark Stuart, Regional Director of Basic Health Managements, Inc., a private corporation under contract with the DMH.

Kokernak explained that the youths, who will come from the Blackstone Valley area, come from bad family situations and that some are the victims of abuse. The DMH is seeking to place them in a more stable atmosphere with 24 hour supervision.

Kokernak said, "These kids need the therapy of contact with their peers and are doing so successfully in other such programs in the area."

Stuart added, "We want to be good neighbors. Top priority will be given to Sutton kids."

About 50 residents of the West Sutton Road area attended the meeting, with about a dozen expressing concerns over the program and one individual welcoming the children to his neighborhood. Some residents complained that they weren't notified soon enough of the intent to locate the facility in their neighborhood. Kokernak replied that they were notified as soon as the DMH knew the location.

Responding to some residents' complaints that their rights had been violated, Kokernak responded that the new residents have the same rights.

Some residents of the area also expressed fears for their safety, but were assured that the youths do not represent a danger to society.

The Selectmen also reported that the Chairman of the Millbury Board of Selectmen, Jude Cristo, said that there is a similar home in his neighborhood and there have been no problems associated with it.

The DMH representatives admitted that many residents complain when facilities are sited near them. However, Kokernak concluded, "I would love to come back in a year; I am sure you'll have positive feelings about the program. You can't tell these kids from yours."

Selectwoman Mary K. Connor maintained that the DMH should have presented the positive aspects of the facility in the very beginning, saying that their representatives did a poor job of public relations. Labonte agreed and expressed concern that the poor PR might result in the youngsters being ostracized by their neighbors.

Labonte suggested that the residents form a Citizens' Advisory Committee to better address the matter. It was also suggested that the parents visit similar programs in other towns and return to discuss their observations at the next meeting. The DMH representatives will also attend that meeting.

Vacancies

The Board of Selectmen announced that vacancies exist on the ByLaw Revision Committee and on the Planning Board.

Millbury Historical Society

MILLBURY - Millbury's most famous inventor, Tom Blanchard, invented the eccentric lathe and is accredited with twenty or more patents. In observance of the bicentennial of his birth, the Millbury Historical Society is planning a bus trip on Saturday, October 1 (October 8 rain date), to the Mt. Auburn Cemetery in Cambridge to visit his gravesite and that of other famous individuals. An early cemetery utilized during the 1700's will also be visited.

There is no charge for the trip. The only expense will be lunch at one of the restaurants at Harvard Square.

The bus will leave Millbury at 9 a.m. and return at approximately 3 p.m. Contact Betty Church at 865-6678 or Grace Laflash at 865-4563 if you are interested in participating.

Dexter Blois, Sutton's new Town Administrator: the right prescription for Sutton

SUTTON - Dexter Blois is a tall, slim, soft-spoken man whose very appearance and manner evoke a feeling of congeniality and authority - two qualities which, on the surface, appear paradoxical. Dexter, who looks younger than his 46 years, has an unhurried, unintimidating manner. When spoken to, he listens with quiet attention, absorbing and considering what is said without interruption or commentary. When the speaker has finished or the inquiry made, he responds with a casualness and authority that gives the appearance that he has long considered the item in question and is simply giving the conclusion to his lengthy consideration. His style is the product of both his personality and his years of experience which offers him an enviable perspective of which the town of Sutton is the beneficiary.

In an interview with the Chronicle several months ago, the Chairman of the Charter Review Committee, Bud Gurney, and committee member Ethel O'Day explained the nature and duties of the newly proposed position of Town Administrator. It was difficult to imagine that one person could embody all of the characteristics which they hoped their ideal "Town Administrator" would have. One short session with Dexter Blois, and it is abundantly obvious that Sutton has found just such a person.

The Charter Commission's wish list included a person with sound academic credentials in public administration, one who possessed business experience, an in-depth knowledge of small town politics - preferably from the ground up, and an ability to gather people together and work with them and over them without intimidating or disenfranchising them.

First, did such a person exist? And secondly, if found would such a person choose to share these considerable talents with a sleepy, picturesque community on the threshold of explosive growth?

The town fathers needed to hire an administrative assistant for the Selectmen under the old by-law and, in their wisdom, prudently sought the best candidate possible to fill what might prove to be an interim position. After a considerable search, Dexter Blois was hired and assumed his responsibilities as Administrative Assistant on May 1, 1988. "The selectmen explained the situation to me and made no promises," Blois said. "I had no problem with that; I took the position with the idea that I would do the best job I could and accept whatever happened."

Blois did not begin his working life in public administration. He comes from a long line of pharmacists. His grandfather, father and brother have maintained a pharmacy in Westboro which is still operating today. As a graduate with a B.S. in Pharmacology from the University of Connecticut, he worked for a short time in pharmaceutical research and development. After completing his service in the Navy, he returned to the family pharmacy where he managed the retail operation of the store. He did not, however, find his work as fulfilling as he had hoped.

Blois then discovered some of the satisfaction he was seeking in civic activity. He became a volunteer fireman and was elected to the Board of Health. Blois approached his duties with the same thoroughness and dedication that appears to be the hallmark of everything that he does. In the 70's, he began his studies for an Associate Degree in Fire Science at Mass. Bay Community College. "As I was taking classes," Blois said, "I saw that this wasn't too fruitful so, in '78 - '79, I started graduate work at Clark University." Blois subsequently received his Master's degree in Public Administration from Clark.

For ten years, Blois was an elected member of the Westboro Board of Health and served in the rank and file with the fire and police departments. He explained that this experience gave him "a perspective that's helpful as town administrator because I've had an opportunity not only to read about problems in government but actually experience what they are and how they can best be resolved."

In 1980, Blois was appointed Town Coordinator for Westboro, a position which would complete his apprenticeship for the Sutton post. "My duties there (in Westboro) were very similar to those here," he explained. "I was the chief administrative officer for the town."

His Sutton responsibilities are to manage the day to day operations of the town, the same as they were in Westboro, but in his new position, he has more responsibility and authority. Because town government operates with so many departments that are overseen by part-time administrators, it is frequently difficult to expedite that which must be done. It is the intention of the charter to create a position through which all of the town's activity can be funneled, making for more efficiency in communication of information and actualization of policy.

Blois explained his position and the spirit behind its creation with an analogy. "Town government has a budget of 5 1/2 to 6 million dollars," he said. "That's a pretty good size corporation. The town is like a corporation. The residents are like stockholders; the selectmen are the board of directors who are ultimately responsible for everything. My position is beneath them. I have responsibility for and authority to run an efficient operation, but I'm responsible to them (the Selectmen.)"

Blois concedes that one of his most important duties is to keep open the lines of communication between the various boards and departments in town. "Towns are fortunate to have dedicated people who are willing to serve, but town government is very complex and it's difficult for boards and committees to just keep up with the work they have to do much less getting information out," he said.

Part of Blois' responsibility is to act as a conduit where people can go for information and from where information can radiate without the delays that occasionally result in frustration. Having this information centralized also gives the new town administrator a perspective which he can share with other town boards and personnel, and gives him valuable knowledge needed in planning for the future. "The charter provides for a Capital Expenditure Planning Committee which is supposed to plan for future financial expenditures," Blois explained. His role will be to advise this committee and to give valuable input so that the town can avoid fiscal crises.

"Policy and goals are the responsibility and job of the elected officials," Blois said. "It's their obligation to plan what direction and how they want the town to grow in the future. I can recommend, guide, and advise, but it's the responsibility of the elected officials to set the course; that's what the people elected the selectmen for. Once the policy is decided, it's my responsibility to implement it. If they (the selectmen) need advice, I'm happy to provide input and to do research."

The years that Dexter Blois has spent in the "trenches" learning about the subtleties and obstacles, the perils and the rewards of town government have cultivated in him a sensitivity and understanding critical to the successful discharge of his responsibilities. Years of theoretical and practical experience blended in an unpretentious person of unquestionably demonstrable dedication - a formula that can't seem to be anything but successful.

And how does Blois capsulize his first few weeks as Town Administrator? "I love it," he said, his face breaking into smile as he goes on complimenting a long list of town officers, employees and residents who have been helpful to him. "Everything seems to be going smoothly. Everyone in the system has been very co-operative, making this job very enjoyable."

Crop Walk

Mark Your Calendar!

On Sunday, October 23, Millbury and Sutton residents will again be walking to raise money to alleviate hunger in the world. The walk, covering approximately six miles, will begin at Millbury center and proceed to West Sutton.

This is a great way to join with your friends and neighbors in the fight against hunger.

Parents are invited to walk with their children to show them they care about providing food and clean water to starving countries.

Hearty Breakfast Planned by Millbury Baptist Church

MILLBURY - The Women's Council of the Millbury Baptist Church will sponsor a Hearty Breakfast on Saturday, October 15, from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. The menu will consist of: Orange Juice, Scrambled Eggs, Homefries, Bacon, Blueberry Bread, Coffee or Milk.

Tickets are $3.25 and may be purchased at the door or in advance by calling Sandy Gilbert at 865-5176.

Training Session at Abby's House

WORCESTER - Abby's House is a volunteer organization offering a shelter, day/lunch program, thrift shop, and a food pantry for homeless and formerly homeless women and children. A training session for all women interested in staffing one of the programs will be held on Saturday, October 1, from 9:30 a.m. to noon.

To register, call Tess or Elaine at 756-5486, or write to Abby's House, 23 Crown St., Worcester, MA 01609.

Aroun' The Town & Golden Agers Update

By Lillian C. Sheehan

MILLBURY GOLDEN AGE CLUB: the September 20th meeting was cancelled due to the trip to the Merrill Farm Inn. They will travel to New Hampshire on the 19th and return on the 22nd.

There will be a meeting on Tuesday, September 27, and all those who have not yet paid their dues for this year should do so soon.

Marcus Dooley, President, has announced a trip on the Mohawk Trail around October 12th when the foliage is at its peak. Lunch at the Salem Cross Inn and a visit to Brookfield Orchards is on the Agenda. Details have not been completed, more about this later.

CENTERVIEW: the food at the Iron Kettle in Monson was simply delicious! And the mall in Springfield held our interest until it was time to leave.

Taking advantage of this good weather will see the group traveling to Rindge, NH, to the Old Forge for lunch and to the Cathedral in the Pines.

Hopefully, the "Mystery Trip" that Helme has planned as a foliage trip in October will be as good as these have been!

Bingo is now an every Wednesday evening affair and we hope that "Ma" Cobb and Margaret Sharp can get their ride this time as well as all our friends from Colonial.

ST. BRIGID'S WOMENS' CLUB: all members of the club were reminded that the Fall schedule will open with the Craft and Apple Fair on Saturday, October 8, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Since this is the major fund raising activity for the 1988-89 club year, the cooperation of all club members is solicited as well as members of St. Brigid's church.

Apples and baked goods will be sold at the Apple Fest. Each member is asked to either bake an apple pie or some other favorite recipe for the bake table; and articles are needed for the yard sale, craft table, etc. Grocery items are also welcome to fill the baskets which will go on the raffle table. Anyone having anything to donate or anyone available to help the day of the Fair, please call Madeline Hartline (865-4876) or Kathy Hackett (865-6010) or Paula Beauregard (865-5553). Many volunteers are needed and will be greatly appreciated!!

Annual Waters Farm Day

SUTTON - The ninth annual Waters Farm Day will be held on Sunday, October 2, in conjunction with the Blackstone Valley Heritage Homecoming Celebration.

Waters Farm, located off Central Turnpike, was conveyed to the Town of Sutton in 1974 by Dorothea Waters Moran, a direct descendant of Stephen Waters who built the original part of the huge sprawling farmhouse in 1757. The 115 acre parcel is part of the original deed of 1720 and has been in the continual possession of the Waters family.

Because the Waters family were sticklers for keeping records, the Waters Farm Preservation Committee has detailed accounts of most activities that took place at the farm during more than two centuries: the addition of wings to the farmhouse; the erection and demolition of outbuildings; the crop planting and harvesting; animal husbandry on the rolling land high above and coming down to Manchaug Pond which it borders for more than 2,000 feet; and even the acquisition, repair or refinishing of pieces of furniture.

The farm came to national attention earlier this year when a train of covered wagons, accompanied by outriders, departed Sutton on June 16, traveled through New Hampshire and arrived at the Washburn Norlands Farm in Livermore, Maine, to share in its Heritage Days on June 25.

In 1802, newlyweds Simeon and Betsy Waters moved from Sutton to Livermore to establish their new home and raise a family. In June, 186 years later, newlyweds Bill and Joy Nydam of Sutton, together with their companions in the oxen-drawn caravan, repeated the journey.

According to a spokesman for the Waters Farm Preservation Committee Project, the 200-mile trek was made to create an awareness of three historically rich farms presently used as learning centers: the Waters Farm, the Washburn Norlands Farm, and the Musterfield Farm of Sutton, N.H.

Much restoration work will be required before the farm and its buildings and land will be as they were in the mid-1800's. This is the period which will be recreated in methods and costume to afford the public, young and old, an opportunity to observe life as it was in the 1800's and take an active part in it if they wish.

During Waters Farm Day, a variety of events will be held, including: a display of antique farm implements, machinery and hand tools; plowing and mowing demonstrations with the oxen of Bob Pearson of Millbury and horses of Wesley Hopkins of Plainfield, Conn.; draft horses and Belgians from Sutton; farm implement demonstrations; oxen and wagon demonstrations; a display of gas engines; weed walks; children's games; displays and demonstrations by local crafters; exhibit of paintings by Sutton artist Linda Sinacola; a juried photography contest; and a tour of the adjoining Hillock Morgan Farm with a Morgan horse demonstration.

Also on hand at the farm will be those individuals who participated in the 200-mile wagon train trek and three of the wagons used.

Refreshments will also be available throughout the day, including homemade hot apple crisp and apple dumplings, topped with ice cream; home baked cookies, hot dogs, hamburgers and chili; and fresh apple cider made on the site.

The route to the farm will be plainly marked from the Central Turnpike exit on Route 146 and from exit 4-E on Route 395.

Tree Warden

The board asked Earl Chase to contact Tree Warden Bill Berthiaume concerning complaints over butts left from the cutting of tree crowns on town land.

It was also mentioned that some residents have complained that Berthiaume does not return calls.

Water Street

Gauthier reported on a difficulty which has arisen from the renovation work on Water Street. According to Gauthier, since the color of the sidewalk, curbing, and street are all the same, people descending from the sidewalk at night could experience problems. Donnelly suggested that a yellow fog line be laid along the road near the curbing for better visibility.

Dwinell Cemetery

Cristo raised a question concerning the "deplorable" condition of the cemetery on Dwinell Road. He noted that it was called to his attention by a resident who stated that it is only cared for at Memorial Day and the rest of the year nothing is done to maintain the appearance. The board will view the area and ask the Cemetery Commissioners to consider more maintenance during the year.

Letters

The Millbury Housing Authority sent a letter to the board requesting a clarification of the false alarm fees. The matter was referred to the Fire Chief.

A letter was received from Gaudette Insurance concerning property and liability coverage. The board requested that Chase ask for a written proposal from the agency.

Two articles from the Highway Department were received for consideration for the town warrant for a special town meeting. One article was seeking $10,000 for the sidewalk account and another $20,000 for repairs to a retaining wall on Sycamore Street.

The Planning Board sent a letter to the board requesting that recommendations for changes in subdivision rules and regulations and fees be reviewed.

The board approved on a 4-0 vote, a recommendation from the Planning Board to establish a Road Standards Study Committee to be coordinated by the Planning Board.

On a 4-0 vote, the board approved a request for a proclamation concerning emergency medical services.

A letter was received from Joseph Brady concerning zoning code violations at 2-4 Sutton Road. The letter was referred to the Building Inspector and Town Planner.

High Speed Chases

Lachance requested that the board seek an opinion and policy review of "high speed chases" from Provisional Police Chief Ronald Stokowski.

Chase stated that Stokowski wants to work on a package of proposals for policies to be adopted.

Political Signs

Cristo asked for an update on oversized political signs that were put up in town. He noted that the building inspector still has a sign on his property that is in violation of town regulations. Chase stated that all parties were notified by mail two or three weeks ago.

Lachance moved for adjournment at 9:04 p.m.

Spence Reports $180,000 Projected Budget Deficit

By Terry Barnicle

SUTTON - The Sutton School Committee met on September 12, with Chairman Andrew Smith and members Sue Horne, Ann Fox, and Elizabeth Bacon present. Also at the meeting were Superintendent Gordon Spence and Assistant Superintendent Ed Grant. The following items were addressed:

Washington Meeting

It was announced that Elementary School Principal Beverly Brown, Smith, and Spence would be travelling to Washington D.C. on September 14 as the National Association of Elementary School Principals has voted the Sutton Elementary School one of the top elementary schools in the country. They will meet with President Reagan and Education Secretary Bennett.

Appointments

Beverly MacCollom was appointed a Grade One teacher. She has worked for the Sutton School system for many years.

Mary Cipro was appointed as a substitute Special Education teacher. A first year teacher, Cipro will be replacing a long-term substitute teacher.

Reading List

The Junior-Senior High School Outside Reading List was approved by the board. The exact number of books the students will be required to read will be established in October.

Bus Contract

Spence informed the Committee that a bus contract has been made with Weagle Bus Co. for the same figure as the second lowest bid of three years ago.

PTA Newsletter

Committeewoman Bacon announced that the Parent/Teacher's Association has made a commitment to publish a newsletter which will be sent home with the students. Bacon said the PTA has suggested that a column be written by the School Committee to include information on committee matters.

PTA President Ramona Lapidas suggested that information come from the School Committee rather than the PTA so that the committee's viewpoint will be put forth. Committee members supported the idea.

Budget Deficit

Spence reported that the School Department's projected budget deficit as of September 12 is $180,000.

Spence explained that $100,000 was cut from the budget at the town meeting. An additional $35,500 was needed for transportation because of a breach of contract; $17,500 was added for a mandated asbestos management plan; $15,000 was added for a part-time computer coordinator; and $12,000 was added for secretarial help.

According to Spence, the major items in the $3.7 million budget are salary (81%), transportation (9%), supplies (2%), and utilities (2%). He also pointed out that the state's average per-pupil cost is $3850 while Sutton's is $2937. Spence stated, "It is impossible to cut the budget without cutting salaries.

Adjournment came at 8:15 p.m.

To see if the Town will vote to amend its zoning bylaw by adding the following additional zoning bylaw:

"E. IRREGULAR LOT BYLAW

Section 1. Purpose and Intent.
The purpose and intent of the irregular lot ByLaw is to allow flexibility for property owners in meeting the basic intent of the dimensional requirements of Section VI, Area, Height, and Bulk Regulations.

Section 2. Applicability.
In the R-1 and R-2 residential zoning districts of the town of Sutton, irregular lots that meet all of the dimensional requirements of the Table of Area Regulations in Section VI with the exception of the width (frontage) requirement, will be permitted subject to the following provisions and the granting of a special permit by the Planning Board. Where an irregular lot is located in more than one residential zoning district, the requirements hereunder applicable to the residential zoning district in which the lot's street access is located must be complied with.

Section 3. Special Permit Granting Authority
The Planning Board will be the special permit granting authority for the purposes of this Section. All applicants under this Section will be responsible for obtaining a special permit prior to any construction on said lot. The Planning Board may grant a special permit if it finds the following:

a. Efficient use of the land will be made;
b. The scenic and natural resources of the town will be protected;
c. Adequate access is provided to the lot which will protect the public safety; and,
d. The standards of this Section have been met.

Section 4. Frontage.
Said lot must have a minimum street frontage of not less than forty (40) feet. Frontage shall mean the horizontal distance between the side lot lines measured along the property line dividing the lot from a street (right-of-way), and where the primary access to the lot is, or will be, located.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Sutton Planning Board will hold a Public Hearing on Thursday, October 6, 1988, at 7:30 p.m. in the Municipal Center to review the following proposed amendment to the Sutton Zoning Bylaws, to wit:

To see if the Town will vote to amend Subsection B (Tables of Area and Height and Bulk Regulations) Section VI (Area, Height and Bulk Regulations) of its zoning bylaws by deleting therefrom the following table:

"Table of Height and Bulk Regulations

District	Max permitted height (ft.)	Max permitted height (stories)	Max bldg coverage of lot (covered area as percent of total lot area)	Min residential net floor area (sq. ft.)
R-1	35	2.5	10	768
R-2	35	2.5	20	768
B-1	30	2.0	80	not permitted
B-2	30	2.0	50	not permitted
I	30	2.0	50	not permitted*

and substituting in lieu thereof the following new table:

"Table of Height and Bulk Regulations

	District
	R-1	R-2	B-1	B-2	I
Max bldg height (ft.)	35	35	30	30	30
Max bldg stories	2.5	2.5	2.0	2.0	2.0
Max bldg coverage of lot (covered area as % of total lot area)	10	20	80	50	50
Min habitable floor area per dwelling unit (sq. ft.)	768	768	NP	NP	NP
Min open space (%)	-	-	50	50	50

(NP - not permitted use)", and to add the following new definition to Section II (Definitions) of said zoning bylaw:

"Open Space: that portion of the lot area not covered by any structure and not used for drives, parking, or storage. Man-made retention areas shall not be considered open space. All open space shall be kept stabilized with natural vegetative cover.", or act or do anything in relation thereto.
